

WHO'S ON FIRST? 3 RED FLAGS YOUR PRACTICE IS RUNNING YOU

Work/Life Imbalance

Do you keep missing your kids' special events? Does your partner say you're like two ships passing in the night? It's important to get your business in check, lest you lose out on the most important things in life.

Stalled (Or No) Growth

Do you feel like you're working harder and harder, but growth is stalled? Do you feel like you keep starting over every time you hire new staff or acquire new clients? These are signs that your growth is roadkill and something needs to change.

No B. Planning Time

Do you take a lot of time to plan other people's lives and goals, but don't take time to do your own business planning? Do you feel like you have a lot of initiatives you intend to start, but keep getting caught up in day-to-day minutiae? These red flags are the clearest signs that your business is running you.
